

Prescribing in Pain

November 2022 0930-1600 hours

Welcome and overview

Medicolegal implications

Implications of off label prescribing—Prof Roger Knaggs

Challenges in education and clinical practice panel

Evidence based guidelines and formulary —Karin Cannons

Updates in prescribing including the DPP competency—Martin Galligan

Imbedding education in practice—Dr Emma Briggs

Break

Patient centred approaches

Compliance and concordance—Lloyd Allen

Consideration for ethical decision making and moral injury—Jackie Walumbe

The lived experience of opioid reduction - Louise Trewern

Lunch

Working in Partnership

Medication trials and tapering—Dr Emma Davies

Psychologically informed approaches to deprescribing —Diarmuid Denny

Prescribing for the patient with acute and complex pain—Dr Gill Chumbley

Break

Maintaining Professional Skills & Knowledge

AHP roles panel discussion